Inclusion Ireland is running 3 Zoom consultations on different rights under the UNCRPD.

We want to find out what you think about how well your rights are being protected under the UNCRPD.

What? The first consultation will be on Education, Day Services and Employment.

When? The first consultation will take place on Thursday 6th of May, from 2 to 4pm

Who? Self-advocacy groups, people with an intellectual disability, family members and supporters are all welcome to attend.

Homework - When you register you will get three videos that were made with people who have an intellectual disability.

These videos will help you and your group to think about what issues are important to you before the event.

How to Register

You can send us an email to info@inclusionireland.ie or call us at 01 8559891

There is a limited number of places to attend the event.

The closing date for registration is Fri 30th April
