

Tackling the housing crisis disabled people face

Inclusion Ireland and Independent Living Movement Ireland (ILMI) are delighted to invite you to the launch of our report called:

Our Housing Rights: Tackling the Housing Crisis Disabled People Face

Disabled People face a housing crisis in Ireland right now.

We came together in partnership using focus groups to understand the issues and solutions in housing for disabled people in 2021.

We know it is difficult to access and afford housing and to get the independent living supports people need.

Our report tells of the problems in housing and solutions to fix these problems.

The solutions should be included in the new Housing Strategy for Disabled People which will be published in the coming months.

We hope our report will support disabled people to have their voices heard in consultations about the new Housing Strategy for Disabled People so the strategy will be a good and effective one.

Join us for the launch of the report on our webinar at 11.00am on Monday 13th September 2021.

(The launch should take about 30 minutes)
