Inclusion Ireland is running a series of 3 Zoom events about people with intellectual disabilities speaking up about their rights in the media.

The events form part of a project Inclusion Ireland are doing to help self-advocates become spokespeople in the media and speak up on their rights. This project is funded by the Irish Human Rights and Equality Commission.

What? There will be self-advocates from our Media and Rights Working Group speaking about the UNCRPD, rights, and the media. We want to hear from you on these topics!

When? The second event will take place on the 6th of July on Zoom from 11am until 1pm. This event will be about how to speak about independent living and participation in the community in the media.

Who? This event is for people with intellectual disabilities and their supporters if they need support to attend

There is a limited number of places to attend the event.
