

 Irish Banking Culture Board	Staff from Inclusion Ireland are helping the Irish Banking culture Board.
	We are running a focus group at the Inclusion Ireland offices on Foley St. On the 22nd March From 1pm to 3pm
	If you have a bank account and are a person with an intellectual disability, we want to hear how you find banking in Ireland.
	We will talk about <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Things the banks can do for you.</li> <li>2. Going into a bank building.</li> <li>3. Online Banking</li> <li>4. Fraud and Scams</li> <li>5. Changing Banks</li> </ol> We will not talk about personal things like how much you have in the bank.
	You can ask us questions or tell us what is important to you.
	To sign up for the focus group you can e-mail info@inclusionireland.ie or phone 01 8559891. There are limited spaces and places will be given on a first-come-first-served basis.

We will send you full list of what we will talk about in the focus group before you go.

The Irish Banking Culture Board will pay you €50.00 for coming to the focus group.
